WEDNESDAY, MARCH 30.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

FOR THE PUBLIC RECORD.

We are most honoured
PROF. JOS. DESHA PICKETT a candidate for re-election to the office of State Auditor, and are anxious, subject to the action of the Democratic State Convention at Louisville, in May, 1857.

FOR THE LEGISLATURE.

We are most honoured
M. H. RINGSTON, a candidate to represent the people of Custer in the lower house of the Kentucky Legislature, subject to the action of the Democratic party, at the primary to be held on the 11th of April.

For Lieutenant Governor,

SAM E. HILL,
Of Ohio County.

SUBJECT TO THE ACTION OF THE DEMO-CRATIC PARTY.

Acting Secretary of the Treasury, Fairchild, is prepared to relieve any financial depression which may occur.

Successor sought in search of a Presidential home, and Blaine is searching the West in quest of the same sickle phantom. Truly, there be many ways to induce the office to seek the man.

Day after tomorrow the Inter-State Convention Act takes effect, and the average Congressman who has been taking his pleasure trips on free passes, will probably pay full fare in the future.

Mr. W. S. STRICKER has retired from the editorial control of the times, will be succeeded. Willis made things pretty lively while wielding the editorial fiver. We wish him success in all future ventures.

It is thought by many, that there will not be more than half a crop of tobacco planted in Ohio county, this year. If the result is to plant but half a crop carried out, it will be all the more profitable in the future.

Mr. J. D. DURHAM will accept our thanks for the local items he kindly brought us. Friends in the country, will place under lasting obligations by bringing or sending us every little item of local happenings, such items are the very life and soul of a county paper.

Mr. J. W. JOHNSON, of Calhoun, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the State Legislature.
Mr. Johnson is a man of acknowledged ability, and great experience.
His reputation is a large one, his painstaking, conscientious labor in the State Senate deserves recognition at the hands of his fellow-citizens. In our humble opinion the Democracy of Mc-Lean could do no better than to give him a hearty endorsement.

The Democrats of Ohio county should not forget that the primary election comes off on the 16th of April. It is the duty of every Democrat to vote at that election, in this way, the party organization can be maintained intact. The party should bear in mind, that no matter who is the nominee, the battle will be fought to the bitter end, and organization is the only weapon, with which we can hope to succeed; a full vote at the primary is an evidence of a determination to win at August.

The Democratic County Committee should use every effort to secure a large vote at the April primary. A large vote then means unanimity in the party, and the success of the party at the August election depends largely on the result of the action of the Committee. It is within the power of the Committee to encourage every man to vote, and the result of this arrangement should be made to give the uninformed the field must be swept clean, there must be no faltering, it is not merely the election of a candidate, but the success of the party, which is at stake.

THE LEWIS CREEK BRIDGE.
The called session of the Board of Magistrates left at 10 o'clock this morning, and are to have an iron bridge constructed over Lewis Creek on the Rockport and Cora road, or to have one erected over the creek at the point known as "the Rocky Ford." The discussion of the matter before the court elicited the fact, that to build the bridge, the latter point would be more convenient to a greater number of people than to build it on the site of the old bridge.
The additional fact was also brought to light, that the Hartford and Rockport road could be made to cross the bridge at the Rocky Ford. The bridge at this place would shorten the distance between the respective points about one mile, but this would be effected by having a crossing accessible at nearly every season of the year, besides it would be equivalent to throwing three bridges into one, and obviate the necessity for keeping three in repair. There is still another reason: the bridge at the contemplated point is inaccessible when bridges are absolutely needed, the bridge over the stream at that point must be kept in repair, and at considerable cost in repair, and at considerable cost in the maintenance of the main bridge. The bridge on the Hartford and Rockport road, also, is of very little benefit when people need bridges most. Good business sense would indicate that Rocky Ford should be selected, thereby accommodating the greatest number of citizens and saving the person's money.

BOOMING.

Louisville is booming her real estate. Barren county is translated to the seventh heaven on the wings of natural gas, iron ore, petroleum, coal and many other things. Peoria just below us, is putting on business like aeroes over her rich iron deposits.
Wherever we direct our attention the spirit of improvement permeates the whole atmosphere. Progress walks over the land, defying opposition, and surmounting obstacles hitherto deemed insuperable.

The mere action of the people, in their respective localities in bringing to the notice of the general public, the vast natural resources by which they are surrounded, has invoked the presence of capitalists, determined to make the richness of nature contribute to their already overflowing coffers.
Millions more are still waiting for profitable investment, the question arises as to whether the resources exist, and will compensate the investor, and thus create a continued exchange of commodities.

There is no question in the State that natural resources, for commercial, mechanical, or agricultural purposes surpass Ohio county, nor is there a single section richer in natural resources. Here in the very heart of the greatest coal field of the Union, perhaps of the world, ample water power at almost every point, timber of the richest and finest qualities within reach, every variety of coal, peat, walnut, cherry, maple, hickory and ash, to say nothing of the supply of gum and cedar. Her mineral wealth of almost fabulous extent. A great river marking the boundary is one dividing the country, and a number of smaller streams, each one liberty to enjoy the evening as she wishes.
Some of the members of this family are residing, others enjoy a conversation, and others are engaged in attempts to pen the landscape in the coming and going of every little city.
Mr. W. G. McFarland returned from Louisville last week.

The Calhoun community building is a success in the near future.

We stated in our news last week that Mr. John J. Jaine, of this place, and Miss Sally Cunningham, will still claim this as their home. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Atchison, (Owen-sboro) Messengers.

Three hundred tramps appeared in a town in China last week. The inhabitants of the place induced them to go to their temple, where a fire was burning, to find out if the tramps escaped.

Mr. Henry Crenshaw and Miss Mary A. Atchison, an eloquent couple from Ohio County, were married at the court-house Friday by J. W. May, of Louisville.

Mr. Adele Hixson, wife of Dr. J.
L. Hixson, was born in Louisville, Saturday evening, at the St. Luke's Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. McFarland, who have been residing at their home in the Calhoun community, were married on Saturday evening.

Our people should realize the facts, which we have set forth, and exert themselves to the utmost, to place Ohio county in proper light before the world. Let meetings be held, representatives to the money centers. Compel attention by presenting facts. Meet with representatives. Meet with the public, and let the world know what we are doing.

business.

Business of all kinds seems to be flourishing, notwithstanding the high water isolated the little city for six or eight weeks. The business houses, for the most part are well arranged, and command a large and profitable trade.

THOMAS SMALL.

If you want to see the greatest curiosity in the world, go to the Western Room, at C. B. Martin's, and see the watch with only one hand.

M. D. L. Bennett is in the Plating Machine office with Woodruff Bros., who have opened north side of Public Square, next door to H. P. Taylor's law office.

Come to the sacrifice of dry goods store at Small's, hats and caps, at A. Kalu's old stand, Cromwell, Ky. Goods going at less than cost.

13 8 t W. L. S. BRACKEN, Agt.

March will soon be a thing of the past, and while she did not display any great amount of lambs in nature, the lion will be by means of the Baptism of the Lamb. This will be a time when will be given of the time and place.

Two farms for sale, one containing eighty acres, and the other seventeen acres, will sell one or both. Terms reasonable. Address or call on S. M. BOYD, Belvedere, Ky.

The Sandusky Hotel improves with age. To a hungry traveler, the well prepared dishes of new spring vegetables of all kinds, from the sweet pea to the luscious strawberry, are a rare treat. Add to this, the skillful cooking of the chef, and the result is a meal that the hand of the entertainer has not equaled. The traveling public are certainly greatly indebted to Capt. and Mrs. Sandusky.

Messrs. Woodruff Bros., inventors of the "Exotic" Plating Machine, which is on exhibit at the Plating Room, W. B. Kratovsky and Turner, are now located at Hartford, Ky. We have had many dealings with these gentlemen, and have always found them prompt and reliable. They are in every way commendable. We wish them success in their new field. —Week Standard, Paducah, Ky.

(FOR THE HERALD)

Scintillations of the Societies.—Several societies have the close of a term in Highwood College marked by more pleasing exercises than those of 25th and 26th April.

Usually the pleasant duty of demonstrating to the public the progress of the school in a given term, the exercises of the Societies, however, on this occasion the honors were graciously borne by the two thriving Literary Societies, the Adelphians and the R. E. C. Club.

On Friday evening, the Adelphians, represented by nine official members rendered the program as previously published, in their own, mainly style and received the plaudits of the audience with a hearty round of applause. Mr. Shill, the president, was a witness of many fully re-enacted.

The ovation, which under the skillful fingers of the Misses King, was well deserved, was followed by Mr. Craig's patriotic oration of American Freedom. The soft strains of "Moonlight on the Hudson," were a peaceful prelude to the harsh tones of "Stride Home," as read by Mr. Landers. The exercises were closed by a solo by Miss Verda Duke, which was a fitting conclusion to the evening.

Religious.—Editor E. M. Clegg of the Christian Church, will preach at the court house in Hartford on Friday night, April 2nd, and on Sunday morning and night following.

Baldy Hurt.

Last Saturday morning, while Mr. Wm. Sandusky of the Cromwell Reliance, was on his way to the court house to a wagon, near the residence of Mr. Ben Thomas, the horse took fright at other horses running and playing in an adjacent field, and dashed madly through the fence, which caused it to overturn throwing Mr. Sandusky out, and clear over the fence into the field, injuring him seriously, perhaps fatally. Dr. Pendleton was immediately summoned.

Off for Montana.—Mr. L. M. Pendleton left Friday to visit his son, Mr. Leo Brown, of Daviess County, and left Owensboro on the 26th inst. for Miles City, Montana, in company with Mr. J. F. Johnson and Nathan Mattingly of McLeansboro. The young men will be there about four days and nights.
